Ark Tribe is facing 6 months jail for allegedly attending a safety meeting on Hindmarsh Construction site Flinders Hospital and refusing to do his workmates when instructed by the Australian Building Construction Commission (ABCC) to attend their inquisition.

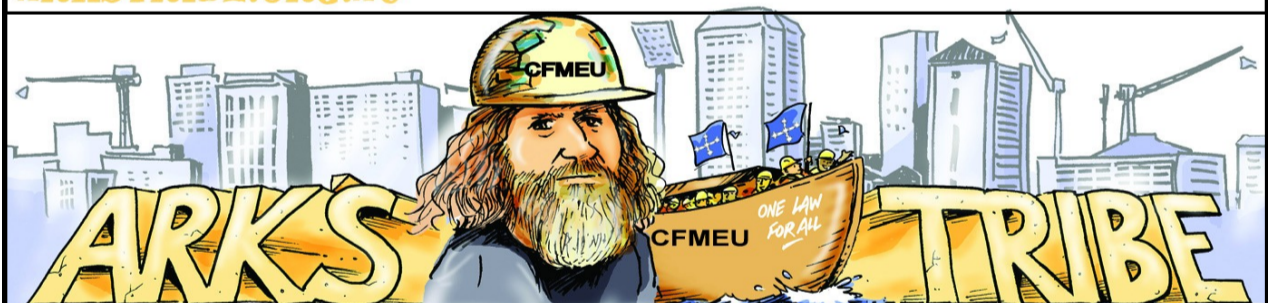

There has been no suggestion or indication from the employers, the ABCC, or those prosecuting, that Ark Tribe was involved in any other activity which breached any law nor has he been charged with any breaches of any law other than the accusation that he failed to attend an ABCC inquisition.

Murderers, rapists, pedophiles and every other scum bag under the sun have rights which are denied to construction workers for no other reason than they, like Ark Tribe, are construction workers.

Under the ABCC, the union could be fined more for stopping work after a fatality than the employer would be if they were ever convicted over the death.

THE UNIONISTS COULD BE JAILED THE EMPLOYER COULD NOT!
